

Roughshod Raiders – September Raid Report - 9/6/2025

Well folks, the dust has settled from the September Monthly Raid, and the lead done flew true across six mighty fine stages. The steel was ringin', the cowboys were grinnin', and the Roughshod Raiders showed once again why this here outfit rides tall in the saddle.

The Florida sun was blazin' hotter than a six-gun barrel after a quick draw. But we had our trusty fans and shade covers ridin' shotgun to keep the posse cool. The sky looked like it was fixin' for trouble, but luck was on our side; the rain held its horses 'til after the last shot was fired and the steel quit ringin'. By the time the clouds opened up, the match was done and dusted, leavin' the Raiders high and dry in victory.

Thanks to the Posse

A tip of the hat to every shooter who wrangled their waivers before the raid began — the range folks were mighty grateful, and it sure made their job smoother than butter on a hot biscuit. Thanks to y'all's cooperation, the match kicked off with nary more than a few minutes' delay.

Another hearty thanks go to the hands who rode in early on Friday to help set the stage: Marshal J.W. Stone, Delta Glen, and Rooster Ray. Their hard work made sure the town was ready for Saturday's showdown, and the whole posse owes 'em a cold sarsaparilla.

Your grit and good will made the load lighter for everyone, and the whole posse tips its hat in appreciation.

👏 Final Word

All told, September's Raid was a mighty fine shoot; full of hot lead, clean runs, and plenty of grins. The Roughshod Raiders ride on into fall with the smell of burnt powder in the air and another month's worth of braggin' rights tucked under their gunbelts.

'Til we ride again, may your coffee be strong, your misses be few, and your lead fly straighter than a cowboy's tall tale. Keep your barrels smokin' and your targets clangin', and don't forget — the only thing faster than a six-gun is the tall tale told after.
